Real Estate Field Executive Predicts Record Prosperity

A year of unbridled, and unparalleled, prosperity was today forecast for Americans in 1957 by Walter E. Elieson, National Association of Real Estate Boards field executive.

Barring the possible outcropping of inflation and a runaway boom, Elieson declared that there "is nothing to stop this nation from building the biggest and strongest economy in its history."

ELIESON, ONETIME economy chief in Los Angeles for the U.S. Department of Commerce, charted a bright economic future for members of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board meeting at a Ranch Club breakfast this morning.

The 67-year-old economy expert based his predictions on carefully studied trends of big business, the construction industry and population growth.

He pointed out that big business the best economic weather vane, has scheduled unprecedented expansion for 1957, presaging an even bigger outlook for 1958 than last years all time buying and selling high.

WE'RE SETTING up higher goal than ever before, he said. "There will be higher employment, higher income, sales and profits than we've ever seen before."

The confidence of the nation's industrial giants is reflected in the construction future for the year, with builders planning commercial and educational construction at more than five per cent above last year's all time high, Elieson claimed.

Elieson also cited the President's 12-year, $100 billion road building program, which will see at least $1½ billion worth of road building this year alone, as an excellent indication of future prosperity.

THE NATION'S overall confidence is evidenced in enormous surges of population growth, Elieson asserted. And, thanks to "your wonderful Western way of living," Southern California can look forward to 1,000 new residents every day—all migrants from Eastward climes.

"I have never seen such prosperity as appears before me today in Southern California," he commented. "There is absolutely no reason why it should not continue."

Elieson offered one warning—the threat of a runaway boom, and the resulting bust. He cautioned Realtors to "be on your guard" against the dangers of paper prosperity.

Senate Committee Cites Union Officials

WASHINGTON — The Senate Government Operations Committee voted today to cite four officials of the Teamsters' Union, including its No. 2 man, for contempt of Congress for refusing to testify about alleged racketeering.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said the vote was unanimous. He said the citations would be reported to the Senate today for final approval. From the Senate, they would go to the Justice Department for prosecution.

THE CITATIONS were against: Einar O. Mohn, a vice president of the huge union and executive assistant to General President Dave Beck at its headquarters here.

Frank W. Brewster, Seattle president of the Western Conference of Teamsters and the union's Joint Council 28.

Delta Airlines Saves 38 With Perfect Landing

JACKSON, Miss. — A Delta Airlines Constellation with 38 persons aboard crash-landed on an airport runway here today in an emergency operation so smooth that a two-year-old passenger thought it was a game.

None of the 33 passengers and five crew members on the four-engine New York to Dallas airliner was hurt in the landing but one passenger sprained an ankle while leaving the plane.

The Constellation circled the airport for more than an hour using up fuel before trying to land on a landing gear that would not lock. The wheels touched the runway and buckled. The plane veered to the left, ran off the runway and crashed on its wing in the mud.

Mrs. C. Lowe, Atlanta sprained an ankle when passengers were hustled off hurriedly for fear fire would break out.

500 Convicts End Riot at Utah Prison

All Hostages Released After 11-Hour Ordeal

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah — Some 500 convicts ended an 11-hour riot at the Utah State Prison today, gave up captured weapons and released all hostages, and begrudgingly returned control of the battered penitentiary to authorities.

Officers said at 8:30 a.m. (PST), that "we now are in full control of the entire prison."

THE RIOTERS gave up at 5 a.m. and released 13 men whom they had held since before 6 p.m. Wednesday, when the outbreak started during a basketball game between a church quintet and a prison squad.

However, it took more than three hours before officials, moving slowly and carefully, could get to all guard stations and feel they were again in command.

CONVICTS WERE ordered to "muck out the mess" left by their riot. Cellblocks B and D were "pretty well torn up" with plumbing damaged, windows knocked out and litter strewn over water-covered floors. Other cellblocks were damaged, but not as extensively.

A fire started in a basement storehouse still burned at mid-morning in stacks of mattresses and in a newly arrived shipment of uniform cloth.

NONE OF THE 18 men released at 5 a.m., seven of them from the Latter Day Saints Church basketball squad at nearby Granger, had been injured.

The hostages were preceded from the cellblocks by two convicts, armed robbers Billy Randall and Joe Valdez, who turned over to authorities the weapons they had taken from a captured sentry turret.

RANDALL CARRIED a machine gun. He handed it to a guard, then gave the officer the ammunition clip for the weapon. He turned to another guard, calmly opened his jacket and took a revolver from his belt.

The inmate opened the chamber to show there were five bullets in the pistol and then, with a flourish, surrendered it.

Eighteen men, including seven members of a Mormon Church basketball team, came out behind Randall and Valdez.

ATTY. GEN. E. R. Callister said the riot ended when the convicts agreed they would let the hostages go if the inmates' list of grievances could be presented publicly. This was done half an hour before the release when Randall and Valdez came out and talked to newsmen.

Spanish Police Use Force to Dispel Students

MADRID, Spain — Police armed with truncheons today broke up a demonstration by Spanish students outside the old downtown university building. The demonstration coincided with a citywide boycott of the transportation system.

About 500 students massed outside the building shortly after noon.

Planes Delayed By Bomb Scare

SAN FRANCISCO — An anonymous phone warning that "there's a bomb aboard flight 796" delayed two Western Air Lines planes this morning, one for more than five hours.

Community TV Plans Protest, Hearing Request

Construction permits for two new translator stations were granted today by the Federal Communications Commission to the Palm Springs Translator Station, Inc.

Merrill Brown, attorney for the company, said this morning that "as soon as we receive the official authorization (construction permits) from the FCC we will act to put the stations on the air. We want to have permits and read them to see if there are any provision that we must comply with and there is no reason why we shouldn't receive them within a couple of days."

ONE OF THE stations will operate on Channel 73 to translate programs of station KRCA on Channel 4 in Los Angeles. The other will operate on Channel 70 to translate programs of station KNXT operating on Channel 2 in Los Angeles.

By its action the commission denied petition from the Palm Springs Community TV Corporation which objected to the grants and requested a hearing.

But, according to Frank Allen, general manager of Community TV, the corporation's counsel in Washington will now file a protest on the issuance of the permits, and according to Allen, under the rules of the FCC a public hearing can be obtained when a protest is filed.

ALLEN SAID today that "the purpose of this hearing will be present before the FCC certain matters of public interest concerning the Palm Springs Translator Station, Inc., that have not yet been made public."

There has been a continuing battle between the new Translator station and Community TV since the instigation of the new process early last year.

Hundreds of letters from local residents were sent to the FCC in Washington, asking that the permit be issued.

ACCORDING TO Frank Bennett, president of Palm Springs Translator Station Inc., the new television station will bring television to hundreds of persons in Palm Springs "who cannot afford to pay the high price of cabled television."

The new company's towers are located to the northeast of Palm Springs on Edom hill, and will translate the signals from Los Angeles at a high frequency—beamed directly into Palm Springs.

THE TOWERS WILL be maintained by subscription of funds, given voluntarily by local residents. The only apparatus needed to receive the signal on a set is a special attachment; a converter, that will cost in the neighborhood of $20.

Hungary Seizes Arms In Raid on Factory

VIENNA — Hungarian government troops raided a factory in suburban Budapest and seized "great quantities" of hidden weapons, Budapest press reports reaching here today.

The raid was the second of the week in the Communist government's hunt for "counter revolutionaries" and weapons.

INFORMED SOURCES here reported the Hungarian government also may be laying the groundwork for an attempt to seize uncooperative Roman Catholic Josef Cardinal Mindszenty from his sanctuary in the U.S. Legation in Budapest.

The sources said this might be behind the charges made against Mindszenty by the official Hungarian newspaper Nep Szabadsg Wednesday.

House Committee Calls For Tighter Airline Control

WASHINGTON — House investigators looking into last week's fatal plane crashes in California and New York, called today for tighter federal supervision of airline flights.

The government within the last 48 hours had already issued a series of new safety regulations governing airline flights and plane tests.

BUT MEMBERS of the House commerce Committee said they want the government to go further.

Civil Aeronautics Board representatives Wednesday gave the committee preliminary reports on the collision of a jet fighter and airliner at Pacoima, Calif., Thursday and the crash of a Northeast airliner the next day at New York City. The crashes killed a total of 28 persons.

REP. STEPHEN B. Derounian (R-NY), said he and other members of the committee were "disturbed" by the reports.

"I feel we need a general tightening up of everything," Derounian said. "One idea is to have several roving bands of inspectors to step in any place and give planes a going over, grounding those that are not up to standard."

REP. KENNETH A. Roberts D-Ala suggested that the government control both takeoffs and landings at airports. Rep. Charles A. Wolverton (R-NJ), charging that the airlines are "carrying people in a rather precarious way," suggested

U.S. Brands New Action As 'False'

Second Expulsion In 8 Days, Follows Russian Attacks

WASHINGTON — Russia has expelled two more American Embassy attaches in Moscow on "false" spy charges, the State Department announced today.

The department said it has just been notified that Capt. Paul R. Uffelman and Lt. William S. Lewis, both assistant naval attaches in Moscow, have been expelled.

JUST EIGHT DAYS ago the Soviet Union ordered the expulsion of two U. S. assistant military attaches on what the department described as "equally spurious espionage charges."

The new Russian action followed on the heels of a Kremlin accusation Wednesday that the United States is waging a "secret war" of espionage and sabotage against Russia. U. S. officials labelled those charges as another effort to divert attention from Russia's own "difficulties."

THIS GOVERNMENT recently expelled two Russian officials. And more recently, three Lithuanian-Americans were arrested and indicted in New York City on charges of committing espionage for Russia against the United States.

Expulsion of Uffelman and Lewis from Russia was announced by State Department Press Officer Lincoln White. In a long statement White disclosed that Uffelman and Lewis had been "physically assaulted" on a Leningrad Street Jan. 26 while a Soviet policeman stood by.

THIS INCIDENT, he said, has been protested by the U. S. Embassy in Moscow. Lewis suffered lacerated hands during a struggle for his camera, but Uffelman apparently was unharmed.

"These officers have been falsely accused by the Soviet government in engaging in spying activities," White said.

300 Surgeons End Three-Day Meeting Today

More than 300 distinguished West Coast surgeons today wound up the annual, four-day convention of the Pacific Coast Surgical Association, held at El Mirador Hotel.

Surgeons from Vancouver, B.C., to San Diego discussed 27 papers on new trends and ideas in surgery presented to the group by some of the nation's top medical men, according to Dr. Lyman A. Brewer, of Los Angeles, convention co-chairman.

Singling out some of the meeting's high points, Dr. Brewer cited a "brilliant approach" to the problem of arterial clots in intestinal angina worked out by Dr. William Mikkelsen. His paper discussed the successful grafting of arteries to short-circuit clots in the system.

More than 400 citizens of Bremerton and Kitsap County, Wash., are expected to make their fifth annual trek to this resort city next Tuesday for their annual Bremerton-Palm Springs picnic. The picnic, which last year drew attendants from eight states, is open to all residents and former residents of Bremerton or Kitsap County.

THE TAMARISK Park outing, scheduled for noon, Feb. 12 is also open to former employees of Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, former Army and Navy personnel stationed in the county and their friends.

Among the picnicers expected here is Bremerton Mayor H. O. "Whitey" Domstad. Palm Springs Mayor Florian Boyd will greet the visiting officials and everyone else attending the affair.

Anyone planning to attend the picnic is asked to bring a potluck lunch. Coffee, cream and sugar will be provided by the picnic committee.

THE PICNICS were originated in 1953 by Rudy Campbell, present picnic committee chairman. The first picnic drew 49 picnicers, but the number swelled in following years.

In 1954, attendance totalled 137; in 1955 it was 215 and in 1956, the attendance figure soared far past the 400 mark.

Sheppard's Restaurant Owes Growth to Owners, Phone

By BILL RASHALL

If you had tried to call Bridge Haven Cafe, White Water, California, via telephone from New York City or Miami, Florida, . . .

Instantly you would have been in an argument with the telephone operator. She would have informed you that there isn't any telephone exchange with the name of a cafe attached to it.

But there was. And eventually when the operator dared to complete the call she must have been amazed to find that there was such a number as Bridge Haven Cafe, White Water, California.

Now all of this may sound or read as unreal to many but it was a fact for many, many years, and the two people who caused this to become a reality actually experienced trouble with New York City and Miami, Florida, operators.

The "number" doesn't exist any more today. So don't call it — that is Bridge Haven, Whitewater, California. Instead, call Sheppard's Restaurant and Trail Room in the same town. Because it was Roy Sheppard and his wife who started the Bridge Haven Cafe, or maybe they bought it from the former owners whoever they may have been.

TODAY IT IS called Sheppard's, one of the most plush establishments on Highway 99, 60 and 70, only 12 minutes from the heart of Palm Springs and just about the same distance in time from Banning.

The Bridge Haven Cafe telephone was used by all of the residents in the Village. It was called by newspapermen who wanted to know about news stories which occurred in the neighborhood, about a manhunt in the rugged hills behind the cafe in the rugged hills of the Little San Bernardino or about some itinerant lost along the highway.

TODAY, AS IT was yesterday and many yesterdays ago, it was a wife and husband team that established Bridge Haven Cafe and now just plain Sheppard's, more plush and more luxurious than it ever was before as one of the crossroads of America. It is believed that Sheppard's will, with its place of a place almost a-straddle of Highway 99, will become one of the national spots on that transcontinental highway. The reason: there's a public telephone in the restaurant and phones are hard to get these days in growing California.

But back to Sheppard's as the old Bridge Haven Cafe has faded from existence. Both Roy and his spouse worked 16 to 18 hours a day to make the place as popular as it is today.

MOST IMPORTANT of all, both have opened a cocktail lounge that beggars description in adjectives and superlatives. It is really beautiful. Its opening formally is Friday, and the room is called the Trail Room which easily blends with the highways that pass its doors.

There is a piano bar which not only contains a piano but in addition a handsome Hammond organ. There will be entertainment, of course, in this gorgeous room which has been added and recently completed by the Sheppards.

Roy, when he came to this area from Springfield, Illinois, knew absolutely nothing about the restaurant business. But he and his wife were determined to find out financially. Just imagine a machinist watching over the preparation of a pot of clam chowder? But then there was his wife who stood beside him, and in addition there was a chef too.

THE COUPLE HAS two sons. One is Robert E., now 24, who is a supervisor for the Bell telephone Company at San Bernardino. There is another son too, Robert Gene, 29, in his last year at medical studies at the University of Southern California.

"Our success in this business," both husband and wife declared, "is attributed to the repeat business we have from tourists along the highway, Palm Springs, and all the surrounding towns."

One look down the crowded counter where food was being served verified everything the couple said.

The new Trail Room will without a doubt be a rendezvous for residents from Banning, Palm Springs and all surrounding areas.

Area Business Group Hears Of Phone Rates

Increased rates for telephone users in the Cathedral City area was sought yesterday by the California Water and Telephone Company.

In a speech before a record attendance of the Cathedral City Area Business Association, Doak Davis, Palm Springs district office manager, explained the reasons why.

STATING THAT the present was an unfortunate time to ask the increase, Davis generalized his position by calling attention to the delicate balance and an adequate return on that investment.

"In no other manner except through an increase of rates" he said "may the telephone company now compete in the securities market with other companies engaged in selling stock."

The problems of the telephone company and what they are trying to accomplish in the way of adequate service and requirements were outlined by Davis, who added in explanation of present customer complaints, that mistakes had undoubtedly been made but their object above all, was to meet the deadline.

THREE QUARTERS of a million dollars would go into the Cathedral City area alone, he continued. New equipment, both inside and outside the plant would be installed and any reasonable customer requirement as to either service or maintenance, should be adequately fulfilled by October.

Legion Approves County Hall Lease

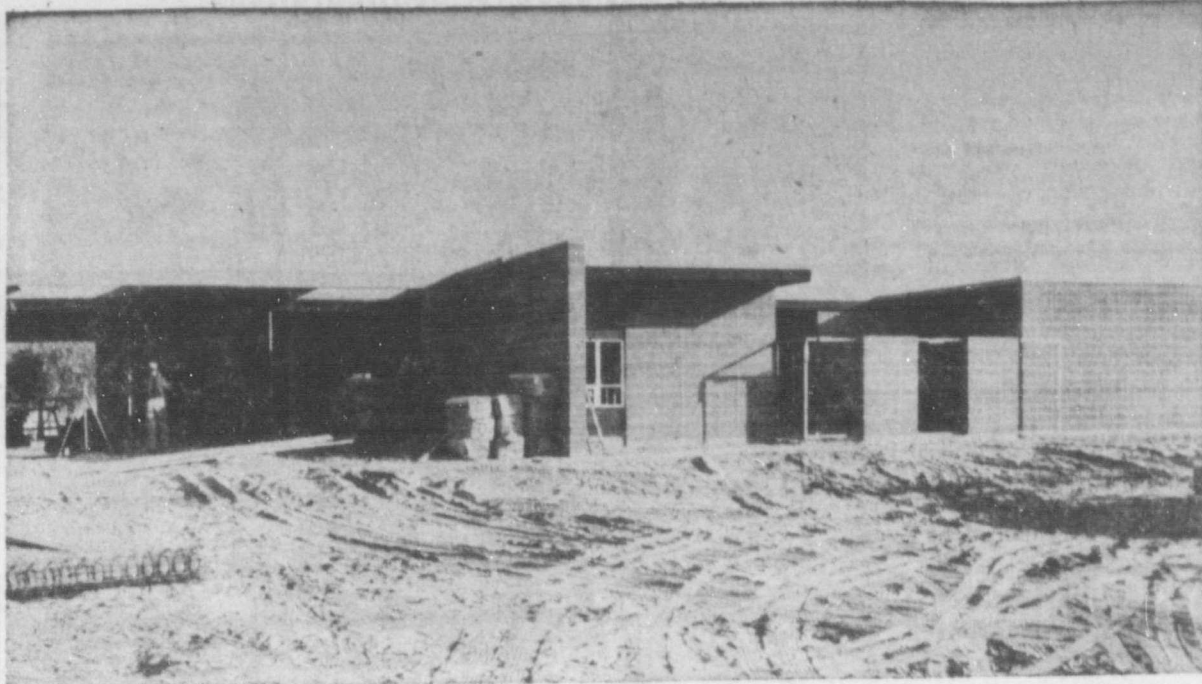

The American Legion has agreed to give the County of Riverside a lease on the auditorium of the American Legion Post building to construct offices.

The county plans to have office space in the building for a judicial district court, deputy district attorney, constable and assessors office.

The County Board of Supervisors has already approved the move subject to the approval of the local Legion.

Paid in French

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (AP)—The traffic bureau received a letter from Quebec, containing two Canadian dollar bills for payment of a parking fine. A letter written in French accompanied the money. No one could read it, but a clerk with imagination remarked, "I think we can consider ourselves bawled out."

CONSTRUCTION IS NOW progressing and by the end of this month will hit full speed on the Palm Springs High School administration building. Workmen are now doing the tedious job of putting in insulation, and plastering will soon be under way. The building will

New School Administration Building Well Under Way

By FRED C. WEIGEL

To the east of the present high school plant and setting some 200 feet back from Ramon road, is the new Palm Springs High School administration building.

Scheduled for completion in March, the new building is progressing rapidly, and will soon house many of the important departments of the school district.

ENTRANCE TO the administration building will be from the Ramon Road side of the building, along landscaped walks into a reception hall. A trophy case will be directly ahead on the north wall.

To the right will be the high school office, fronted by a counter, providing easy accessibility to the students. The high school principal's office, the adult evening school principal, and the evening school registration counter are also off the Main reception hall.

TO THE EAST, a corridor runs past a teachers' mail room, teachers' rest rooms, and into a teachers' lounge and study room. To the west of the lounge, and fronting the front of the building, is a patio.

From the reception hall, a corridor runs north to advisor conference rooms, and their offices. One huge conference room will be utilized, and it can be made into three smaller rooms by merely closing partitions.

THE NORTHEAST corner of the administration building will be utilized by the school district nurse. In that area she has an office, an examination room with separate dressing rooms, and two hospital rooms (one for boys and one for girls) where students can lie down if they are ill. Each of these rooms has its own lavatory.

The administration building will be one of only two buildings in the district with refrigeration cooling, the other being the district offices at Frances Stevens School.

KEEP IN MIND if you file separate returns that if one of you itemizes his or her deductions the other must also itemize.

Whether filing jointly or separately, if you compute your tax and find you owe more tax, attach a check or a money order for the full amount due. Make it payable to "Internal Revenue Service" and send it with your return to the director of internal revenue for your district.

YOUR INCOME TAX

(Editor's Note: This is the second of five articles to help taxpayers make out their federal income tax returns.)

By RUSSELL C. HARRINGTON
Internal Revenue Commissioner
Written for United Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Married couples usually can save money by filing a joint return instead of separate returns for their federal income tax. The only sure way to tell which method costs less is to figure the tax both ways.

The law allows you to file either jointly or separately in any year, whichever way you select. In other words, you are not bound to file jointly this year just because you did last year.

THE SAME BLANK forms are used whether you file jointly or separately. Generally, if the combined income of husband and wife was less than $5,000, you can make the choice between the simple card Form 1040A or the longer Form 1040. If your income was $5,000 or more, you must file on Form 1040.

There are certain situations in which joint filing are forbidden. These happen in relatively few cases, but should be remembered. They are: If you were divorced or legally separated on or before Dec. 31, 1956; if you are married to a non-citizen who does not live in this country; or if you and your wife report your income on the basis of different tax years that is, if you report your income on a 12-month period ending Oct. 31, for instance, and your wife uses the calendar year.

EVEN IF YOUR wife had no income at all, you may file a joint return. And if you didn't marry her until New Year's Eve—before midnight, of course—you may still file a joint return.

If your wife worked a little during the year and earned less than $600, it will probably be to your advantage to file a joint return, rather than letting her file separately. She might get a refund by filing separately in this case, but you could not file a joint return and you would lose her as an exemption. More about exemptions tomorrow.

IF YOUR WIFE or husband died during the year and you did not re-marry before the end of the year, you may file a joint return for the full year. And under certain circumstances the surviving spouse may claim the same income-splitting benefits of a joint return for the two years following.

When husband and wife file a joint return, both must sign the return and both become liable for any amount of tax owed.

In filing a joint return you add both the husband's and the wife's income and list the exemptions and deduction standard or itemized to which both are entitled. Special tax rates are provided for calculating the tax you owe if you file jointly. The rates are figured as if your joint income were split in half and you each paid the tax on one half.

1957 RIVERSIDE COUNTY FAIR and NATIONAL DATE FESTIVAL

INDIO - FEBRUARY 16-24

There may be bigger fairs in the land, but visitors to the fairgrounds at Indio always say there's nothing so "different and colorful" as this one . . . There's fun, fantasy, and features for all the family.

This year the people of Coachella Valley again present their colorful ARABIAN NIGHTS PAGEANT nightly at 8:45, free, from the $50,000 outdoor stage. The CAMELS race as usual in their hilarious fashion at the Horse Show Arena, and in the Agriculture Building this year will be the greatest display of American-grown DATES.

There's the Horse Show, Atoms for Peace exhibit, military and naval displays, and on February 24, famed Charros from Mexico will present an exhibition of superb horsemanship. February 22 is the day of the parade, and over all these events, lovely Queen Scheherazade and her Royal Court reign for nine days.

No raise in prices. The admission is still 75 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children.

Not Designed for Conflagrations

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Following closely in the wake of Arthur "Conky" Conkwright's sudden death last Saturday, it was learned that his total cash on hand amounted to only $40.

Immediately, people who had known Conky for years started a drive for funds to give the old gentleman a decent burial. His wife, Vivian, is unable to assist financially inasmuch as she is out of work.

Roy Randolph was asked, and accepted, to head a memorial fund to be used in giving Conky a grand send-off. Roy and his group started to work immediately. The organizational meeting was held in Peter B. Sheptenko's realty office and the drive via telephone got off to a fair start but more is needed.

AMONG THOSE who contributed on first solicitation were: Randolph, KPAL, KCMJ, The Desert Sun, O. B. Jaynes, Irwin Schuman, Earle Strebe, The Dunes, J. & S. Paving company, Racquet Club, Earl Coffman, Kon Tiki, Carl Barrett, Sales Market, Howard Morris, Taylor Camera Shop and Carlos for Men.

The funeral will take place from Weibel and Sons Friday morning at 10 a.m. Roy Randolph was also scrambling around town trying to obtain pall-bearers.

However, the mortuary has agreed to wait a few days even after the funeral for the cost involved. If you have a couple of dollars, lying silently in your pocket please send it to Conky's Memorial Fund, in care of Roy Randolph.

ANY FUNDS LEFT over will be handed over to the widow who, Roy believes, can also use a few dollars. Let's give now. Don't wait! Believe me, nobody could ever say anything wrong about our fair city in the presence of Conky and I do not believe that anyone ever heard him make a disparaging remark about any person. Agreed that he was a personality in this town, now let's give this man the best we can in a decent funeral—not expensive which he would not have wanted—but a good funeral with a decent casket.

SINCE THE CRASH of that plane into a school yard at San Fernando Valley, some of the mothers whose children attend the Cielo Vista school have expressed fear at the approach of planes about to land at the Palm Springs Airport.

City Manager Robert W. Peterson pointed out that the pattern of flight of these planes is not over the school and that a master plan for the airport is now in the making.

"If this master plan is approved, the runways to the north-west may be extended and this will make it possible for airships to approach their landing at a higher altitude," said Peterson.

He added that the city is striving to keep a clear zone at the northwest end of the airport but that industrialization at the south end may have already defeated that aim.

UKIE SHERIN still amazes patrons at Zanville's with his quick repartee and the manner in which he weaves the names of patrons into his songs while at the piano. Amazing and really funny this guy Sherin. He even makes his Boss laugh on occasion, and that's going some, believe me.

The newest cocktail lounge and restaurant's formal opening takes place Friday when Sheppard's Restaurant and Trail Room opens at Whitewater on Highway 99. Roy and Mrs. Sheppard have poured a lot of dollars into this place and I must say it is magnificent.

This man and wife team worked long and arduous hours in order to remake what was known as one time as the Bridge Haven cafe into the palace it is today. Go out and take a gander. You may like the place.

EARL WILSON:

How the Headshrinker Helped

NEW YORK — You practically have to hit the psychiatrist's couch nowadays to cover Show Biz.

Anita Ellis is the latest to tell me how a headshrinker helped her. She's a scared mousey little babe from Canada and Cincinnati who dubbed the voices of Rita Hayworth, Jeanne Crain and Vera-Ellen in Hollywood. Now she's had the courage to bring out her own album titled, "I Wonder What Became of Me."

When she puts her hair down and opens her mouth wide, people say, "Oh, you do look like Rita"—which she doesn't a bit.

YOU PROBABLY heard Anita on some Red Skelton shows—but the psychiatrist came before that. "My mother was a brilliant singer, but my father was rich and he wouldn't let her sing; so one time in Montreal she snuck off to sing anyway and took me with her. I was three," Anita told me the other night.

"I was so jealous of her that when my father asked where she'd been, to get his affection, I told on her. He took her rouge and lipstick and threw it away."

"Later when I tried to sing, I couldn't do it because I kept thinking of myself as a bad girl as my father had thought of my mother . . ."

When the psychiatrist plucked this all out of Anita, she began singing well.

"ONE SONG I DID for Rita was, 'Put the Blame on Mame' in 'Gilda'."

"Rita told me that was one song she wanted to sing herself. She tried and they did about 192 takes, but it was no good. I felt sorry for her. I should feel sorry for Rita Hayworth!"

At a Hollywood party, a big studio boss asked Anita if she'd sing behind a partition for Rita who would stand in front mouthing the words.

"You can figure out what I told him to do!" she says.

While Hollywood goes ahead with the fiction of its big stars' singing, the American Federation of Musicians doesn't, and Anita's happy that she's got plenty of proof.

In Petrillo's union, you have to get credit," she says, "even if it's a donkey braying."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Tallulah'll wear a plastic pin through her broken finger when she opens in "Eugenie" . . . The Trendex: Steve Allen 28.3, Ed Sullivan 25 . . . Aly Khan'll fly to LA to see Princess Yasmine and try to get Rita to give him a Swiss divorce to marry Bettina. Jackie Gleason (of CBS) showed up at the "Tonight" party at the Harwyn out of respect for anchor man Jack Les-coulie, but wouldn't go on NBC camera due to the network feud.

Sammy Davis Jr. will star in the film bio of former boxing champ Henry Armstrong . . . Mike Todd and Elizabeth Taylor have an eye on a Beverly Hills honeymoon home, a $400,000 shack . . . There'll be a Humphrey Bogart Cancer Foundation . . . Curvy Barbara Nichols joined the "Sweet Smell of Success" cast.

DAGMAR AND husband Danny Dayton work together on TV February 12 on the "Sgt. Bilko" show—she hits him with a pie . . . Glenn Ford's agent finally got him two tickets to "My Fair Lady" for Monday, then learned he was due Tuesday . . . Sir Laurence Olivier, here for the weekend, saw "Waltz of the Toreadors" and "Long Day's Journey Into Night" . . . Kirk Douglas phoned the Blue Angel from L.A. to hear Johnny Mathis sing . . . Producer Billy Wilder gave Audrey Hepburn a turquoise mink coat . . . Monique Van Vooren bought the $1,000 gown she wears in NBC-TV's "Mayerlin" — but for her cafe act she'll have to raise the neckline . . . After his Las Vegas stint, singer Danny Scholl will be tested by Josh Logan for "South Pacific" . . . Boxer Sandy Saddler, who quit when he began to go blind, wants a job as a disk jockey or TV actor.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . An old-timer is one who remembers when you could get a landlord to paint your apartment by threatening to move—Art Moger, Boston.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A woman who makes the match for her daughter usually intends to referee it as well.—Quote.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Roger Price swears he heard a Hollywood producer tell his staff, "We will keep this picture within the budget if it takes every cent I have."

"When I was nine," boasts Dick Bentley, "I licked a kid who was 12. And she was bigger'n me, too . . . That's earl, brother."

QUOTES

By UNITED PRESS

WASHINGTON: Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on whether manpower cuts would still leave the United States enough military strength to move into the Middle East if necessary.

"I'm satisfied we do have the power."

BELGRADE — Official Communist Party newspaper "Borba," indicating that because of "hostile and insulting" anti-Yugoslav feeling in the United States, President Tito will probably cancel his forthcoming visit.

"It is quite clear that the idea of President Tito's visit to the U. S. A. in such circumstances loses all sense for the Yugoslavs."

SELFISH INTERESTS OUT TO KILL TRAMWAY AUTHORITY

Are the people of California opposed to building the projected Mt. San Jacinto Tramway? That is the question which our state law makers will decide when the State Legislature goes back into session next month. Or, it might be more proper to ask: Have the people changed their minds?

A bill to kill the Tramway Authority has been introduced in the California Legislature and the forces which have tried all along to prevent the building of this scenic wonder are at work again. This time, they claim, they are going to win.

It should be pointed out for the benefit of those who do not know that the legislation which created the Tramway Authority merely sets up the method of constructing and operating a tram up Mt. San Jacinto at no cost to California taxpayers. The State of California wouldn't contribute a dime. The project would have to be financed through the sale of revenue bonds that would be retired by charges made for use of the Tramway. In other words, it must be self supporting.

Situation Is Unchanged

Just because it has taken so long to complete engineering studies, get estimates and rights-of-way, is no reason why the "People of California" should have changed their minds about going ahead with the project. Circumstances are exactly as they were when the bill was first adopted—except that it would cost a lot more to build the tourist lift. And that should be of no concern to California taxpayers since it would cost them nothing.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Long Look at Bipartisanship

WASHINGTON, D.C. — "I shall never be party to a bipartisan silence," said Senator Mike Mansfield (D-Mon.) concerning the Eisenhower Doctrine, "when conscience requires me to speak."

Bully for Mike! And bully for the first Republican Senator who comes to his side. The cancer of bipartisan silence on this Middle East fiasco is no chimerical thing. Not only in foreign affairs but in many others, we are under dire temptation to let the Federal bureaucracy, which includes the Executive Departments, do our thinking and planning for us.

IT IS A TEMPTATION that goes with top-heavy government and a maze of foreign and domestic matters which are beyond our easy comprehension. We need our Senators and Representatives to resist this temptation for us. The saying of, "Get thee behind me, Satan," has become, if my observation tells me true, one of the chief functions of the men and women we send to Congress. We must keep on thinking, even if it hurts.

But the House of Representatives has already rubber-stamped the Eisenhower Doctrine after merely one day of debate. The Senate, despite the deepest misgiving, is planning, as I write this, to okay the Eisenhower Doctrine and then, with the horse galloping away, to enter upon a lengthy review of how the nag called Middle East security got lost, strayed or stolen from the State Department barn. With no fear of major contradiction, I would paraphrase a bipartisan consensus of Senate opinion as follows:

"WE'VE GOT TO vote for the Eisenhower Doctrine, which we neither understand nor favor, in order to present a united front abroad. If our allies think we're not behind the President, the free world will lose faith in America. If the Communists think we are divided at home, they will be greatly encouraged in their nefarious schemes on all fronts of the Cold War. We simply dare not rebuff a re-elected President who is also the main figure of hope to the entire free world."

These words or their equivalent have been spoken behind the scenes, I would warrant, by as many as 80 of our Senators. The few, like Senators Fulbright, Morse, Humphrey, Mansfield and the rest, who have questioned the procedure of "bipartisan silence" are being accused of having presidential ambitions or with being, as a couple of them certainly are, automatic loudspeakers. But any Senator who causes the American people to apply Yankee skepticism to this matter is doing his country a service. What in truth does the united front argument mean to Senators?

IT MEANS SOMETHING like this:

"We'd better vote for the Eisenhower Doctrine with as little public discussion as possible, or otherwise the rest of the world might notice what a woolly notion somebody put into the President's hat. We privately suspect that the Doctrine is something which jumped out of a Christmas fruit cake and is as nutty as same. But the best thing to do in such family embarrassments is to put on a big hearty show of solidarity and to face the world with a smile of unity and faith."

This is substantially what the House did, and is what the Senate intends to do, although the whole Middle East policy of 1946-56 will be debated ex post facto. Perhaps it is too late to do anything else about the Doctrine, but it is quite possible that a really

Oliver B. Jaynes

Present efforts of opponents to kill the legislation is based largely on the grounds that the Tramway shouldn't be built because it hasn't been built. It is just about that senseless. Real reason behind the opposition is the same old contention that it would open an otherwise inaccessible area of great beauty to countless thousands of people instead of the privileged few. This sounds pretty silly, too. But it is the only reason that anyone can think of why the project should not be undertaken. There seems little doubt, however, that the conservationists are getting some help from other areas—outside of California, perhaps—which see in this great tourist attraction some competition.

Both groups are moved entirely through selfish interest. Anyone can see that. But the legislators have to listen to all the arguments—and can be subjected to considerable pressure. If they take a stand for—or against—keeping the Tramway Authority alive, they want to have the backing of their constituents. In other words, they want to know how the people feel whom they are representing.

Lots of Help Needed

No doubt a campaign to "Save the Tramway" will get under way soon. If you believe in the project, you should get in and help in whatever way you can. One of the most effective things you can do is let your position be known to State Senator Nelson Dilworth and Assemblyman Lee Backstrand. It would take you but a few minutes to drop them a postcard or letter.

frank and brutal self-scrutiny would show us some mistakes and prevent us from making them again. An examination of Middle East errors should be directed, I think, toward these specific points:

1. SENATOR MANSFIELD'S charge that the post-Christmas launching of the Eisenhower Doctrine "had all the earmarks of a blatant press agency." The idea was aired, much as the proposed visit of Tito, in the form of a trial balloon. Senators first heard of the Eisenhower Doctrine through an "inspired leak" in the newspapers. This public opinion was crystallized in the President's favor before the legislative branch of the Government knew what was happening.

2. Senator Fulbright's question as to whether Secretary Dulles planted unauthorized promises in the minds of foreign leaders on his tours.

3. Senator Morse's query as to whether the Eisenhower Doctrine is not a pledge to fight a war without allies in order to provide those allies with oil.

4. A GENERAL question as to whether several Presidents since World War I have not stymied the work of Congress, and subverted the intent of the Constitution, by doing things which Congress can hardly undo without global repercussions.

It is often said, no doubt because of a lingering tendency to worship the British, that Secretary Dulles is on trial here for loss of "confidence" in him. But in the American system Mr. Dulles and all the Cabinet are mere agents of the President. If we are going to investigate foreign policy, past and present, we had better do so without subterfuge. The Presidents, not their Secretaries, will be on trial.

might not be necessary to be a little "off" mentally to appreciate Elvis it would be of great help.

GIVEAWAY PROGRAMS

(Dillon, S. C., Herald)

The television giveaway programs get bigger and bigger. Successful contestants get richer and richer. Perhaps one of these days we'll be able to get the Secretary of The Treasury on such a program and pay off the national debt.

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

Oh, Legislators, hear my plea And be my Valentine. Don't be too hasty with that axe. Please spare that Tramway line.

Of course, I realize that Valentine Day in this month of special days does not come until a week from today. But I always believe in being early.

FEBRUARY is a month of special days. Three birthdays plus two sentimental days—Ground Hog and St. Valentine's. The birthdays are those of Thomas Edison, (11th), Abe Lincoln, (12th), George Washington, (22nd).

Which makes me think that the producers of one of the many calendars sent us this year, are Ku Klux Klan members.

February 22, George Washington's birthday, is indicated on the calendar in bright red. But the birthday of the Great Emancipator, February 12 is passed up unnoticed, in black.

SOME OF THE BEST shows at local nightspots are often impromptu affairs with the lucky people who happen to be dining at the time, getting an entertainment break that would ordinarily cost them plenty.

The other night down at Zanville's, Hoagy Carmichael came in and sat himself down at the piano. He had a new number he wanted to try out—and then swung into many of his other famous numbers to the great delight of Phil Zanville, proprietor, and the patrons present.

SPEAKING OF inflation (a lot of people are) Neil Olson of the Kontiki, has a menu from a tavern once operated by Abraham Lincoln.

There were plenty of low-priced notations such as a shot of rum for 7 1/2 cents and lodging for 12 1/2.

The prize, I thought, was a package deal—although they didn't call it that—of lodging and three meals, for 37 1/2 cents.

HEARD THIS today about two Village characters, faithful friends but always arguing and playing tricks on each other.

One of them found himself broke a distance away from the Village. He wired his close pal here to send him $50 by return telegram and then haunted the Western Union office in the town in which he was stranded.

The answer came and he eagerly grabbed it from the girl at the desk. Then he read:

"Sorry, chum, but I didn't get your telegram."

DINING CAR steward on the FSP (Friendly Southern Pacific) told me last weekend that contrary to accepted etiquette, it's not only proper but good sense to leave your spoon in the coffee cup—if you are on a moving train. Even aboard today's diesel-powered streamliners, coffee is apt to slosh a bit. He says it won't, however, if the spoon is left in the cup and it works better if the spoon is turned backwards. But look out for those quick gestures, low over the table.

And while on the subject of the FSP — I had the nicest smoothest, on-time ride last Friday. D. J. Russell, president of the FSP was aboard.

INEZ ROBB:

There'll Always Be . . .

LONDON—Well, sir, things are tough all over. But it is one woman's opinion that any obsequies held over England at the moment would be premature and a flagrant waste of flowers.

As of now, England strongly reminds me of Broadway, long-since christened "The Fabulous Invalid." Year after year ever since I can remember the pessimists have declared Broadway, i.e., the theatre, to be dying. Yet every time they arrange a memorial service, Broadway turns out to be the liveliest corpse in the country.

In war or peace, there is no power than can lick a people who persist in rejecting central heating and in perpetrating the myth that the Brussels sprout is an edible vegetable.

ONLY THE OTHER day, this nation broke ground for its second atomic-power station. Her first atomic-power plant—indeed, the world's first functioning atomic-power station—has been pumping juice into power lines since last autumn.

On an almost equally exalted level, this nation is rejoicing in the volume of her aircraft export business, which is expected to earn between 7 and 8.5 billion dollars for this dollar-hungry country in the coming decade. Both United States and Canadian airlines continue to buy her turbo-prop and jet passenger planes.

AT A TIME when the nation can stand a shot in the arm, the announcement of substantial U.S. airline investments in the new "Whispering Giant," i.e., the new turbo-prop, long-range Bristol-Britannia, the smaller turbo-prop Viscount and the new jet Comet IV, has provided it.

In turn, British airlines continue to buy American planes. At the moment, the two industries complement each other. British Overseas Airways Corporation is a classic example of mixing the two products in global operations.

BOAC has just put into service her first (Douglas) DC-7C's, one of which hit 480 miles per hour the night it—and I—flew nonstop between New York and London in nine hours.

WITHIN THE NEXT 12 months, BOAC hopes the huge Bristol-Britannia will be in the trans-Atlantic service and bettering the record of the new Douglas. But for fast jet service across the Atlantic, BOAC will not depend upon the short-range jet Comet IV, but upon Boeing's new long-range jet 707. The British line hopes to have the American jet in operation early in 1960, while the Comet IV goes into the South African, Australian and Far East routes, where refueling is feasible.

The Boeing jet is expected to cross the Atlantic to London in seven hours and return to New York, thanks to prevailing head winds, in an extra 60 to 90 minutes. Interesting enough, the faster planes fly, the more certain they are to be put in the tourist service.

THIS ISN'T HARD to figure out after my experience on BOAC's nine-hour hop to London in the new Douglas. After a long and leisurely cocktail and dinner hour I was almost half-way across the Atlantic before I climbed into my berth. It hardly seemed worth the effort (ever fought with a two-way stretch in an aerial up-berth?).

British plane research has already produced an experimental five-engine jet that takes off and lands vertically. And the industry is confident that by 1970, at the latest, it will have in service a passenger plane that will carry globe-trotters safely and comfortably through the sound barrier. Shall we all rise and join in "There'll Always be an England?"

Model of Early Sailing Ship to Be Displayed at Fair

The island of Pitcairn in the South Seas will figure prominently in the Seventh Day Adventist exhibit to be seen at the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.
In 1889, the Seventh Day Adventist Sabbath School raised $12,000 to build a schooner to take the Gospel message to the inhabitants of this romantic little island. The actual building and outfitting of this ship cost $19,000.
The Pitcairn, as the ship was named, sailed from the United States on Oct. 20, 1890, carrying three missionaries and their families and a crew of seven. It arrived at the island 35 days later on Nov. 25. Today all the inhabitants of Pitcairn are Seventh Day Adventists.
A model of this pioneer missionary sailing vessel was constructed many years ago by a Mr. Kitto, a retired seaman who is now deceased. Mrs. Durane Grimsd, the wife of the pastor of the Palm Springs church, knew Mr. Kitto when she was a child in Canada. This original model ship may be seen in the Adventist exhibit at the Fair.

Mexican Charros to Give Exhibition at County Fair

When four charros trot into the horse show arena at the County fairgrounds at Indio, Feb. 24, spectators will view one of the most rigidly kept traditions of the American continent.
The Mexican horsemen invited to exhibit their equestrian skill at the 1957 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival will perform in the same manner and wear the identical garb of 16th century charros, early-style cowboys.
ORIGINALY, RIDERS on the large Mexican haciendas acquired great skill in working immense herds of half-wild cattle. Expert in the handling of horses and rope, these charros moved among the livestock at round-up time to cut out particular animals.
Later, the work of the ranches became a sport with strict rules and requirements. Contests called charreadas attracted fans with the same enthusiasm that accompanies Mexico's bullfights.
AT THE CHARREADA, such as still presented south of the border, in South America and Europe, contestants vie for beauty and accuracy, not time, as in the familiar rodeo of United States.
The performance at the Indio fairgrounds is believed to be the first in Southern California involving professional charros who will demonstrate the events of a charreada.
The charros who will participate on Feb. 24 are from Mexico City. They are Refugio Arrieta, Rafael Ramos, Vicente Meneses and Guillermo Hernandez. They recently completed a tour of Europe, Cuba and South America.
CHARROS RANK high in society wherever they go. Their black, silver-trimmed outfits for dress affairs is the same one worn formally for the past four centuries. In the arena a special work uniform is worn, and for parades, a showy garb is traditional with qualified charros.
Some of the high respect for charros is derived from their gallant fight against Emperor Maximilian at the time of this country's Civil War. With long ropes and machetes the daring Mexican horsemen captured French foot soldiers, and took away their guns.

AN "EXPERIMENT IN SHOCK"
American Journal of Physiology, Vol. 161, Pages 125-131, April, 1950. University of Georgia, School of Medicine.
Dogs were strapped down and a heavy mallet was used to pound the fissures of their hind legs to a pulp.
THIS IS A GLIMPSE OF "SCIENTISTS" SYSTEMATICALLY BEATING ANIMALS TO DEATH. EXPERIMENTS AS EVIL ARE BEING DONE ALL OVER OUR SO-CALLED CIVILIZED COUNTRY ON HELPLESS ANIMALS.

Dr. Robt. A. Russell, Rector, says, "How long are we, who are supposed to be civilized and merciful, going to permit the brutalizing, hideous, barbarous practice of vivisection in the torture dungeons of medical schools? The use of the blow torch, fuming acid, merciless extremes of cold and heat, starvation and exhaustion, must stop.
"Vivisection is brutalizing and degrading to all mankind that harbors it and must be prohibited by law."

Cadillac

His Golden Anniversary at the Wheel!

In Texas, there is a gentleman who is currently driving out his fiftieth year at the wheel of a Cadillac car.

In New Jersey, there is another gentleman who has purchased every yearly model that Cadillac has produced over the past fifty-three years.

These are simply dramatic examples of one of the most remarkable truisms in all motordom: that once a man takes the wheel of a Cadillac, he usually remains at the wheel of a Cadillac!

To be sure, a motor car would have to offer many unique virtues in order to win so generous a place for itself in the affections of so many.

And, in the case of Cadillac, we think these virtues are self-evident.

There is, first of all, quality. No effort of styling or design or craftsmanship is ever spared to make Cadillac the finest possible motor car.

There is beauty and luxury and performance. The car's magnificent styling and interior coachwork have, over the years, brought Cadillac an inbred majesty and elegance that are entirely its own . . . and Cadillac engineering has been the industry's constant inspiration.

Finally, there is reputation. Never in automotive history has another motor car sustained such an abiding public conviction in its own goodness.

And, certainly, these basic Cadillac ingredients have this year reaped their richest harvest.

So whether you've been at the wheel of a Cadillac for half a century . . . or have yet to spend your first hour in the "car of cars" . . . you should see and drive this newest of Cadillacs.

Need we say more?

LOOKING AHEAD to the 1957 Gaslight Gaieties on February 15-16, are Mary Pickell and Helen Morris, on right, as they appeared in an act from last year's Gaieties. Staged annually by the Palm Springs Business Women's Club, this year's Gaieties will be a benefit for the Cancer Society and will be staged at the American Legion Hall.

Edward Everett Horton's Performance Enthralls Opening Night Audience

The role of Fred Cortin, roue, swindler, and creator of the fabulous but imaginary Arthur is tailor-made for Edward Everett Horton, and the fullhouse opening night audience loved every moment of his portrayal, as star of the Molnar comedy "Arthur", having a two-week run at the Playhouse.

Horton and Marrian Walters, his chip-off-the-old-block daughter, carry almost the entire play, with good support from Tim O'Connor, the British mining engineer who pursues the enticing adventuress from America to her chateau near Monte Carlo, and Phyllis Flax, as Julie, her devoted maid. Other players are seen in minor roles only, but each one adds a bit of spice to the stew that the conniving father and daughter stir up and almost fall into. Horton talks himself in and out of a preposterous hoax, and never once waivers from the sly, but lovable scoundrel he so aptly portrays.

Ferenc Molnar must certainly have had his tongue in his cheek when he wrote "Arthur", for his sharp wit gives a delightful spoofing to a number of things, including politics, European nobility, easy money, and uneasy respectability. This P. G. Wodehouse adaptation is frothy fun, built on innuendo and sparkling dialogue. Deep chuckles, waves of laughter, and frequent applause denoted the warmth of audience response to the premiere showing of this little known and completely enjoyable comedy.

Marrian Walters, talented leading lady of the Playhouse Players, is first seen in a floating, scarlet chiffon dress that immediately makes her the glamorous and sophisticated Edith Brooks. She makes her final appearance in a costume that is a masterpiece of intriguing design, which serves as a fast curtain eaving the audience gasping and howling!

Dick Poliak, who had the lead in the senior play this year, is seen as the boy with the questionable background. He isn't allowed to speak, but he is very funny as the well-coached and not too bright 15 year old. He appeared in "Street Car Named Desire" several seasons ago, and professes a very real interest in acting.

Contrary to the usual weekly opening a new play, "Arthur" will be held over for two weeks, due to the popularity of Horton's Playhouse appearances. This run will include a showing on Monday night, February 12, which is the night of the week when the theater is usually in dress rehearsal. On Tuesday, February 19, "The Chalk Garden" will open, with Jesse Glendinning (Mrs. Edwin Burke) in a leading role.

Shower is Surprise for Mrs. Brudvik

Guild Plans Valentine Buffet Supper

The Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will meet on Tuesday, February 12 at the parish hall, at 12:30, with the hostesses for the day, Mrs. John L. Hobson and Mrs. Murray Marsh, serving dessert and coffee.

At this meeting, final arrangements will be made for the Valentine Buffet supper, to be held on February 14 at 6:30 to be followed by Isabel Charneau's exhibit of miniatures, which collection is one of the two largest collections in the world.

There are some tickets still available, which may be secured from any guild member, or by calling 7036. Reservations are necessary. Donation $1.50 per person.

Crowd of 150 First Nighters Gather at Deep Well Ranch

The distinguished and spacious dining room at Deep Well Inn was the setting for another enjoyable First Nighter dinner, preceding the opening of Edward Everett Horton in "Arthur." Nearly 150 guests were welcomed by Mrs. Henry Dollard, hostess, and her assistants Mmes. Charles Farrell, William Malouf, and James Kemper. Many gathered near the open fire for cocktails, while others found places near friends at the long dining tables. Graceful arrangements of roses on the tables added a colorful note to the soft desert tones of this beautiful room.

Santos, who is known for his gourmet catering, had prepared a delectable menu, starting with a salad course of marinated celery with egg and anchovy on endive. Baby filet mignon with baked stuffed tomato and oven-browned potato comprised the entree, with a special Deep Well molded ice cream as dessert.

Mrs. Harry Joe Brown was seen at the wishing well with her two out-of-town guests, Mrs. Mary Rose Pool (Bing Crosby's sister) from San Francisco, and Mrs. Frank Bering who has just arrived from Chicago. Another guest from Chicago was Mrs. Ray Fager, who recently bought a home in Palm Springs.

Mrs. W. F. Schlothman, a long time Guild supporter, and former concert pianist of San Francisco and New York, was with Mrs. Elizabeth Summerbell of Seattle. Mrs. Schlothman, a winter resident, told of her summer home in Ketchikan, Alaska, which is a center for the arts.

Mrs. Gustav Berg and her escort, Royce Rearwin, from Santa Barbara were with the Ed Robbins. (Mrs. Robbins had been a gracious hostess in her Alejo Road home on Sunday during the A.A.U.W. house tour.)

Mrs. William Brill brought her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson from La Crosse, Wisconsin. From San Diego came Dr. and Mrs. Norwood. Mrs. Henry Pasow had northern California guests, Mrs. Jesse Legros from San Jose and Mrs. Anne Plasjack from Los Altos.

Seattle was well represented by Miss Gertrude McEachern, guest of Mrs. Jesse Hill; Miss Almarine Adams who came with the Ennis St. Cyrs, and Mrs. Roger Wahlman who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles B. Arnold. From Vancouver came Dr. Alex McPhillips, escorting Mrs. Gwynne Hurrell.

Seen in earnest conversation was Michael Ferrall, Playhouse director, and Mrs. Charles Farrell. The Randolph Christies and the Beverly DeTars were a gay foursome, as were Mr. and Mrs. David Margolis and the Don Millers. From Smoke Tree Ranch were the John F. Luccarenis, the Earl Hendersons, and the Fred Honeyes. The E. Stewart Williams were lingering over coffee with the Earl Cordreys.

Grandson Visits The Munhollands

Mr. and Mrs. John Munholland of 302 Camino Norte, had their grandson Kim and his wife Aline visiting with them over the weekend. They are en route to Texas where Kim will take extended training in the Air Force. He is a graduate of Stanford University where he participated in the R.O.T.C. training program.

The young couple recently returned from a honeymoon trip which covered Western Europe, England and Spain.

FIRST NIGHTERS assembled at Deep Well Tuesday evening for their pre-theater dinner. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. James Kemper, standing, recently returned to the Village, and Playhouse director Michael Ferrall and Mrs. Charles Farrell. Mrs. Kemper and Mrs. Farrell were among the hostesses for the evening. (Desert Sun Photo).

Motorists Save Life of Youth

ANAHEIM — Three motorists were credited today with saving the life of 12-year-old Edward Lind, who nearly hanged himself while playing with a rope on a high signpost.

William J. Ullrich and Arvid Peterson, both of Anaheim, and Leroy B. Watts, Garden Grove, saw the boy Monday hanging from the signpost. They quickly cut the victim down and administered artificial respiration until an ambulance arrived.

Men Polite, Birds 'Wolf Whistle'

GARDEN GROVE — Fire Capt. Stanley Beittler said today his personnel were not responsible for wolf whistles which women walking by the firehouse had attributed to fresh firemen.

The whistles really came from a new pet shop located near the firehouse and talking birds in the shop are the guilty ones, Beittler said.

It costs the Army $159.29 to clothe an enlistment man when he enters the service.

Court Shocked With 'Murder' Boasting of Nash

LOS ANGELES — Hardened police officers recalled with shocked disbelief today Stephen Nash's first day in court to face charges of murdering 10-year-old Larry Rice and John W. Berg, a 27-year-old beautiful student.

The toothless, boasting transient sat in court on the first day of his trial Wednesday and spoke loudly and coldly of the joys of killing 11 men and boys in a string of slayings in both Northern and Southern California.

HE PLACED A price tag on giving information to authorities and taunted Berg's brother who told the bragging suspect that he would like to "stick a knife in his back."

Spectators watched in disbelief as Nash told of slaying Berg last Nov. 6 in Long Beach.

"I sure enjoyed that one the most," Nash said. "I gave Berg a 50-50 chance. You'd sure have enjoyed that one... a cloud sort of came over his eyes when he was dying."

INFURIATED, BERG's brother, Donald, shouted from his seat close to Nash:

"I'd like to stick a knife in your back!"

Turning, Nash said calmly: I've had lots of things stuck in me. I've had knives stuck in my brain."

SITTING IN THE courtroom, too, was Henry G. Rice, father of the Rice boy whose mutilated body was found last Nov. 9 under the Santa Monica pier.

He listened as the confessed slayer of his son loudly exclaimed: "I've got four carcasses down here (in Los Angeles) and they're worth $1,000 apiece. After I get a hung jury on my insanity plea, they'll be worth $5,000 apiece."

Nash, confessed slayer of 11 persons, pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to charges of murdering the Rice boy and Berg.

For Free Too

EAST HAVEN, Conn. — Mrs. Louise Shea got a new set of seat covers installed in her automobile and it didn't cost a cent. Mrs. Shea left her car on the street. A man from a seat cover company picked up the wrong car, drove it to his shop and put on the covers.

FRONT OF THE NEW Palm Springs City Hall displays the new identification sign. City Manager R. W. Peterson has now reported to the council that they must consider some change orders in the interior of the building. Among the changes will be paneling in the conference room, shelves in the engineering department drafting room, two closet doors previously left off the working plans, and a large clock for the council chambers. The building was scheduled for completion late this month. (Desert Sun Photo).

Singer-Actress Marni Nixon To Appear Here

Marine Corps to Start Check into New 'Brutality'

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. —The Marine Corps today began a pre-trial investigation of reported brutality of drill instructors toward "several recruits at this big training center."

Capt. James Mahoney, public information officer, said the "boots" do not claim they were struck by a "steel bar" as a father who touched off the investigation charged in a letter to Marine officials.

NELSON R. PORTER of Hartford, Vt., who said his 18-year-old son wrote of being struck with the bar, left for Parris Island late Wednesday, saying his son pleaded in a letter for him to come "as soon as possible."

Porter said Maj. Gen. H. L. Litzburg, commanding officer of the recruit center, admitted in a letter that the son, Pvt. David Lee Porter, had undergone brutal treatment.

MAHONEY SAID that some six weeks of checking thus far revealed there had been other cases, but said the recruits "do not allege they were struck by a steel pipe—we have not found out just how they were struck."

Porter quoted one letter from his son dated Dec. 9 which stated: "I walked into the drill instructor's office yesterday with my hat on. I got hit over the head twice with a steel bar. I would have got hit a third time, but there was already too much blood."

PORTER SAID HIS son begged him not to try to intervene, saying "they will not only make it rougher

Giardello Wins In Unimpressive Bout Over Sandy

CHICAGO — A victorious but thoroughly dissatisfied Joey Giardello today rated Rory Calhoun as the next target on his path toward the middleweight title.

"I'll do better against Calhoun than I did in this one," Giardello said after scoring a split decision over Randy Sandy, a 9-2 underdog in a 10-round battle at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

The win was Giardello's seventh straight ring triumph and ended Sandy's string at five.

"I was overconfident," Giardello said. "I thought I'd knock him out in two rounds. I thought that for the last couple of weeks, ever since I signed for the match."

"But I just couldn't get off. I don't know what was wrong," the Philadelphia battler said.

Giardello, ranked second among the middleweights by the National Boxing Association, was unimpressive in beating Sandy for his 65th win in 83 professional starts.

More Trouble For Indians in Game Friday

Host Elsinore, One of Leaders in RCL in 2nd Round Contest

There's more trouble in store for Coach Al Kazmier and his Indian basketball teams tomorrow night when Elsinore comes here to meet the local Varsity and Bee teams.

Elsinore's Bees made it a double win by taking the Papoose outfit in the preliminary game, 39 to 36. Elsinore now has a 6-3 record in Bee competition. Palm Springs is in the Bee cellar with a 1-6 mark.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — Right now, the horseshoe nail that might lose or win the battle for Brooklyn in defense of its National League pennant this year seems to be a left-handed pinch hitter.

At least that's the impression one gets at Dodger headquarters where there's actually more talk about a portside clutch guy than about Roy Campanella's surgically sculptured hands.

The retirement of Dale Mitchell after the World Series, to go into business, left the pinch-hitting gap. And the question now is whether any one of six possibilities can fill it.

THE HALF-DOZEN mentioned are: pitcher Don Newcombe, catcher Rube Walker, infielder Jim Gilliam if not in the lineup, pitcher Johnny Podres, Bert Hamric-up again for another shot at the outfield, and Jonn Roseboro, a backstop hopeful who throws right-handed but hits left handed—and knocked 25 home runs with Montreal last season.

The Dodger front office hopes particularly that either Hamric or Roseboro can stay with the club and fill the gap-in keeping with the club's rebuilding policy.

On the banks of the Gowanus, there is indeed a concentration on rebuilding.

The disposal of Jackie Robinson sounded Brooklyn's rebuilding key note. And other veterans will go when their times come-men like Campanella, Pee Wee Reese, Sal Maglie, Carl Furillo, Duke Snider, Carl Erskine and Gil Hodges.

MEANWHILE Manager Walt Alston and his aides will be more than ever intent during spring training on trying to pick out youngsters who can be blended in with the veterans-soon.

Pitching hopefuls are Fred Kipp, southpaw knuckler from the Montreal club; and Roger Craig, Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax and Chuck Templeton, who were with Brooklyn last season.

Jim Gentile, a first baseman who hit 40 home runs with Fort Worth last season and led the Dodgers in all batting departments on their post-season tour of Japan, may stick in Brooklyn this time. Likewise third-sacker Dick Gray from Fort Worth. And their outfield teammate, Don Demeter who hit 41 homers in '56.

LOS ANGELES — Ken Miles has been elected president of the California Sports Car Club for 1957, it was disclosed today. Miles, one of this country's ranking sports car drivers, succeeds Joe Weissman. The California Sports Car Club promotes sports car road races in Southern California.

STATE TREASURIES WAX RICH FROM RECORD RACE TRACK TAKE IN 1956

LEINGTON, Ky., — State treasuries hauled in a record total of $207,456,272 from horse racing of all types in 1956, the National Association of State Racing Commissioners announced today.

The staggering total, ranging from the $73,861,755 realized by New York to the $75,881 collected by Nebraska, represented an increase of $20,466,684 over the 1955 total of $186,989,588 reported by the NASRC for its 24 members.

Thoroughbred racing was responsible for the lion's share of the staggering sum with a contribution of $164,067,687 to state treasuries while harness racing turned in $39,879,246 and quarter horse and fairs raised $3,514,399. These same sources raised only $6,024,193 among them in 1954 when the NASRC issued its first report.

New York State, which takes the biggest cut and has the largest betting total throughout the land, realized the greatest income, almost triple its closest rival. New York received $73,861,755 while second place California got $25,742,293.

Racing proved a major revenue producer for several other states, too, with New Jersey getting $23,795,966; Illinois getting $17,536,242; Florida getting $14,694,943; Maryland getting $8,763,519; Michigan getting $7,536,309; Ohio getting $7,107,270; Rhode Island getting $6,421,570; Massachusetts getting $5,641,382; and New Hampshire getting $2,819,719.

Racing also produced more than $2 million in state income for West Virginia with $2,693,851; Delaware with $2,094,764; Kentucky with $2,078,639; and Louisiana with $2,063,975. No other state received more than $1 million.

Scouts to Aid Chest Drive On Saturdays

In a few short days, Palm Springs motorists can boast of having the cleanest windshields in the state—thanks to the energetic efforts of Village Boy Scouts.

The Scouts are donating their Saturdays to the Community Chest fund drive, cleaning the glass of all autos parked in the downtown business district.

The window washers will leave envelopes for contributions and tags reading: "Your glass was cleaned by Boy Scouts participating in the Community Chest so you can see your way clear to making a donation."

"Please tell everyone not to call the police if they spot any uniformed youngsters working on their car," said Chest Campaign Chairman Deway Metzdorf. "The boys are only trying to help."

Metzdorf explained that with Chest contributions lagging far behind the 50 per cent mark of its $50,000 goal, the drive needs all the help it can get.

"We still have a few hundred dollars in outstanding pledges," he reported, "but that won't bring the total much higher than it is now."

Musical Program Planned At Church Piano Dedication

On Saturday, Feb. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the Palm Springs Seventh Day Adventist Church, located at the corner of South Riverside Drive and Camino Real, there will be a musical program to dedicate the new Baldwin Grand piano recently purchased by the church.

Mrs. Kenneth Titus who has appeared in Palm Springs before as the accompanist for the King's Male Chorus of San Bernardino and Loma Linda will play the piano. Mrs. Titus has also arranged for other artists to be present so that there will be a most interesting diversified musical program.

The public is invited to attend. There will be no admission fee.

No Heart Fund Goal Set Because Need is so Great, County Chairman Herbert Reports

A goal has not been set for Riverside County's 1957 Heart Fund Drive, now under way, Montague N. Herbert, Heart Fund chairman, said today, "since the magnitude of our problem — especially the needs of heart research — cannot be equated to dollars and cents."

"The gratifying results of previous campaigns," he stated, "are due in large measure to the increasing number of volunteers who are contributing their efforts to the heart cause."

"WE BELIEVE that the public

now appreciates the magnitude of the heart problem in the United States, the vast human suffering caused by the heart diseases and the loss in industrial community productivity they cause," he continued.

"I am sure that the residents of Riverside County will have these facts in mind and make larger contributions to combat this menace to our community health and prosperity."

THE HEART diseases are the nation's No. 1 public enemy, the Heart Fund Chairman pointed out. They cause approximately 800,000 deaths in the United States each year, more than half of the nation's total from all causes.

He also stated that medical scientists still have not discovered the basic causes of hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and rheumatic fever — conditions that are responsible for 90 per cent of all heart disease. As a result, he said, more extensive research, education and community service programs are vital if the heart problem is to be brought under control in the foreseeable future.

"ALMOST 20 MILLION Heart Fund dollars have been channeled into research in the past eight years by the American Heart Association and its affiliates, and we have made dramatic progress in the development of new methods of diagnosis, new drugs and new surgical techniques and procedures for treating the heart diseases," Herbert said.

The major part of the funds collected in Riverside County remain here and a large proportion of contributions is used for research on a national level. Locally, the Riverside County Heart Association is supporting a worthwhile and promising project on the automatic beating of the heart in Los Angeles.

One of the last remaining regions where giant gorillas survive in the wild is the high bamboo forest on the slopes of Belgaian Congo volcanoes, says the National Geographic Society.
